BOLGIANO'S

FALL CATALOGUE

Capitol City
Bulbs & Seeds

F.W. Bolgiano & Co.
WASHINGTON, D.C.

DEAR FOLKS:

To be able to greet you again this year is a pleasure that I had not expected. It is true that I did not exactly greet you in my spring catalog. I was introduced to you by my son, who must have forgotten that I know so many of you personally. Perhaps, though, it was not such a bad idea for there are also many more that I have not met.

So I am coming to you now with this little book of things pretty and useful. You who are in the country, brighten things early next spring by the bulbs you plant this fall, and you who are in the city, free yourselves from the sameness of hard pavement and brick walls by the flowers in your yard. Make your gardens serve you in the fall as well as in the spring and summer.

Then if there are any questions you wish to ask just drop me a line. Mark it "Attention MISTER B," (that's what everybody calls me). Then I can write you a personal letter in answer.

Your friend,

FRANK W. BOLGIANO, or Mister "B."

SWEET PEAS

Splendid results are often obtained from sowing Sweet Peas in October or November. A perfectly drained soil so situated as not to be subject to too frequent or severe freezing should be selected, and the seed covered about three inches.

Superb Early or Christmas Flowering Spencer Sweet Peas

These varieties are a welcome addition to our lists, for they flower several weeks earlier than the regular Spencers, and if planted with them you will have a much longer season of bloom.
